

COURT PROCEEDINGS

At a Fiscal Court called and held in and for Breckenridge county at the Court House in Hardinsburg, Ky., on Friday, May 12, 1911, for the purpose of providing means and appropriating money to build a bridge on the Rosetta and Irvington road over what is known as fishing Spring branch and to transact any other business that may come before the court. Present Hon. L. L. Waggoner, Judge Breckenridge county court, with the following named justices of the peace: Dan Quiggins, Geo. Harris, G. A. Wright, S. H. Dix and B. A. Whittinghill, absent Jno. N. Akers.

Came Robt. Layman, Commonwealth attorney and made some explanation to the Court in regard to the Hardinsburg and Cloverport turnpike and in view of the fact that the said turnpike company had been at the expense of hauling and beating rock along said pike that was at this time unused in his opinion it would be meritorious for this court to appropriate a small sum for this unused rock along said pike.

On motion of justice Sam Dix seconded by justice B. A. Whittinghill, it is ordered that $300 be and is hereby appropriated to be paid to the Hardinsburg and Cloverport turnpike company for the knapped rock and other loose rock now on the pike, but said appropriation is conditioned upon the filing and recording in the Breckenridge county circuit court of an order forfeiting said pike and all its franchise to Breckenridge county.

If said order is filed in said court then this appropriation is made but in the event said order is not entered then this order of appropriation is to be held for naught and it is further ordered that in the event of said appropriation being made and consummated that said $300 shall be paid as follows: One hundred out of the road fund of the Hardinsburg Magisterial district and one hundred dollars out of the road fund of the Cloverport Magisterial district and the Supervisor of roads is directed to draw his order accordingly payable to the Hardinsburg and Cloverport Turnpike Company out of the levy of 1911, but in no event is he to draw said order until the order forfeiting the franchise of said pike be entered in the Breckenridge Circuit Court.

It is ordered by the court that a bridge be built across what is known as Fishing Spring branch on the road from Rosetta to Irvington. Pal Garner, Supervisor of roads and bridges is ordered to advertise for the building of said bridge and he will receive sealed bids on both wood and iron bridges and after receiving said bids will let a contract for the building of such a bridge as in his judgment is best for the interest of the county and he will let the contract to the lowest and best bidder and a sufficient sum to pay for said bridge is hereby appropriated payable out of the road and bridge fund of the 1911 levy.

Minutes read and adopted. Ordered that court adjourn.

At a Fiscal Court called and held in and for Breckenridge county at the Court House in Hardinsburg, Ky., on the 8th of August, 1911, for the purpose of considering the town creek bridge matter and any other business that may come before the court.

Present, Hon. L. L. Waggoner, judge of the Breckenridge county court, presiding with the following named justices of the peace viz: G. A. Wright, Geo. Harris, Sam Dix, B. A. Whittinghill, and Dan Quiggins, absent Jno. N. Akers.

Moved and seconded by Squire B. A. Whittinghill that the court meet on August 26, 1911, at the site of the proposed bridge and view all the sites and surroundings of the proposed bridge at Town creek and Bull creek and that all bridge men be notified of said meeting by Pal Garner, road and bridge commissioner, and contracts will be awarded for the erection of bridge as deemed necessary at said time and place. Said motion carried unanimously and is made the order of this court.

Moved by Squire Sam Dix, seconded by Squire B. A. Whittinghill that a walk be made on the South and West side of the Court House, said motion being put, a majority voted against it. Said motion is therefore declared lost.

Came C. M. Heston and Wm. Ahl, Commissioners heretofore appointed to make repairs and erect buildings at the Poor House, and tendered their report of work and repairs done, which report is ratified and approved by the court, and they are further allowed the sum of ten dollars each to be paid out of the levy of 1911.

The action of Wm. Ahl in borrowing $295.45 from C. M. Heston, to defray said expenses is confirmed and approved and is made an order of this court.

Moved and seconded that court adjourn to meet on the proposed bridge site of Town creek on August 26, 1911, and said motion being put, carried and court is now adjourned to meet at said place on said date.

Minutes read and approved.

and for Breckenridge county at the Court House in Hardinsburg, Ky., on September 1, 1911, for the purpose of making contract to erect bridges over Town creek and Bull creek and for any other purpose that may come before the court.

Present, Hon. L. L. Waggoner, Judge Breckenridge county court, with the following named justices of the peace: G. A. Wright, G. N. Harris, S. H. Dix, Dan Quiggins and B. A. Whittinghill, absent Jno. N. Akers.

On motion of B. A. Whittinghill, seconded by D. J. Quiggins, W. J. Hall, Jailor of Breckenridge county, is hereby authorized and directed to contract for and buy sufficient coal for county purposes, and sufficient amount not to exceed $150 is hereby appropriated for that purpose, payable out of the 1911 levy of the general expense fund, and the sheriff of Breckenridge county is directed to pay said bill when presented upon the order of said Jailor.

It appearing that bridges are necessary to be erected across Town and Bull creeks, on motion and seconded it was decided and is now ordered that the iron bridge heretofore contracted for from the Vincennes Bridge Company for the site of Town creek, be moved to the site of Bull creek and erected there. It was further decided that a 100 foot iron bridge be erected at the site on Town creek.

SHE GOT WHAT SHE WANTED

This Woman Had to Insist Strongly, but it Paid

Chicago, Ill.—“I suffered from a female weakness and stomach trouble, and I went to the store to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, but the clerk did not want to let me have it—he said it was no good and wanted me to try something else, but knowing all about it I insisted and finally got it, and I am so glad I did, for it has cured me.”

“I know of so many cases where women have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I can say to every suffering woman if that medicine does not help her, there is nothing that will.”—Mrs. JANETZKI, 2903 Arch St., Chicago, Ill.

This is the age of substitution, and women who want a cure should insist upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound just as this woman did, and not accept something else on which the druggist can make a little more profit.

Women who are passing through this critical period or who are suffering from any of those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of the fact that for thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills. In almost every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

the Vincennes Bridge Company of Indiana, The Champion Bridge Company of Ohio, and the Attick Bridge Company of Indiana, and submitting sealed bids for the erection of said bridge.

Said bids being opened in open court and all the facts in connection therewith being discussed it was decided that the bid of the Attick Bridge Company of Attick, Fountain county, Ind., was the most acceptable.

Whereupon came Geo. I. Hammond, agent of the aforesaid Attick Bridge Company, the County Judge and the following justices: S. H. Dix, G. A. Wright, B. A. Whittinghill, D. J. Quiggins and G. N. Harris and entered into a contract for the erection of said bridge according to the plans and specifications filed with said contract.

The contract price for said bridge being $1,465. On motion of B. A. Whittinghill, seconded by G. A. Wright, said contract is made the act of this court, and is now confirmed and ratified the sum of $1,465 is hereby appropriated out of the bridge fund of the 1911 levy to satisfy the amount called for in said contract.

Came Bohler & Co., Hiliary Hardin and the bridge companies above mentioned and also submitted sealed bids for the erection of abutments for said bridge, the court after examining said bids awarded said contract to Bohler & Co., of Cloverport, Ky. Upon motion and second which carried it was ordered that a contract be made for said abutment.

Then came Bohler & Co., and the Fiscal Court and entered into contract in duplicate for the erection of said abutment and a sufficient amount to pay for said work upon the completion and acceptance, is appropriated out of the levy of 1911.

It is further ordered that P. G. Garner, County Bridge Commissioner, superintend the building of said bridge and abutment and he will accept or reject said work when completed.

Minutes read and approved, and on motion court adjourned.

Mistakes Will Happen.

Dear Mr. Babbage:—In your issue of Sept. 20th you published a letter from me. I notice you made an error in the publishing. It isn't important, but it struck me that it was rather funny. In referring to McCreary's and Buckner's speaking about 25 years ago, I said, I remember hearing the boys cry “Hurrah for Buckner, Betsy and the baby.” Buckner was the proud father of a young baby at that time. His wife's name must have been Betsy. The way the News read, was Betsy, the baby and I rode a mile from Webster to Hardinsburg that morn. I guess we must have walked: the rest of the way. I rode a mule, that was at least 24 years ago, and my little girl is 2½ years old. That baby is a woman now.

We had a great laugh when we read the paper. It reminds me of a letter I wrote the Breckenridge Democrat one time telling of climbing a mountain 1600 feet high. They published it 16 feet. So my old friend, Chas. Claycomb, of Webster, often laughed at me about my wonderful climb in N. Y. state. Newport had some very badly disappointed men yesterday when the result of the Canadian Elections were announced, but for my part I am satisfied, for I never favored the kind of reciprocity that they intended giving us. It would have ruined the New England farmer and hurt all producers of agricultural products. Keep up the fight in Kentucky, elect McCreary, and keep the state in line for 1912.
